CLOSURE OF METRO ORLANDO BRANCH CAMPUS

Universidad Ana G. Méndez (UAGM), Cupey Campus announces the closure of its Metro Orlando Branch Campus effective May 16, 2026. The closure is part of the institution's long-range restructuring plan to a single university under a single-name and administrative structure. The Orlando Branch Campus maintained active students enrolled under the academic offerings administered by the Cupey Campus of the Ana G. Méndez University (UAGM) until the conclusion of the second academic semester, which ended in the Fall 2024. During this period, academic instruction was delivered in accordance with the authorized programs and in compliance with applicable institutional policies. The university will continue to provide student support services in accordance with all policies and services outlined in the Academic Catalog.

The university provides proper access to former students and alumni to their student records through the website <https://usa.uagm.edu>. To request official transcripts and duplicate diplomas, former students and alumni can do so by submitting a request via studentservicesrequests@uagm.edu or contacting us at 1-800-774-3030.

Additionally, alumni will have access to Career advising and career development support via careerplacement@uagm.edu.

The Metro Orlando Branch Campus will continue its operations as part of the Ana G. Méndez University (AGMU), the U.S. - based institution accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education since 2016 and licensed by the Florida Commission on Independent Education (CIE).
